

Sample Science CV

Home:

63 Smith Street,
Tipperary Town.
Tel: 062 111111
E-Mail: amoc@hotmail.com

Term:

3 Old Field Lane,
Glasheen Road, Cork City.
Mob: 086 4444444

Annemarie O'Callaghan

---

PROFILE

Honours graduate in Microbiology with strong communication skills, keen to secure employment in industry or hospital based laboratory. Ideal candidate for position requiring initiative, reliability and determination.

EDUCATION

1999 – 2003
UNIVERSITY COLLEGE CORK
BSc (Microbiology) Degree - Result: 2H1

Subjects:

Structural Biochemistry	Molecular Biology
Medical Microbiology	Immunology
Industrial Microbiology	Microbial Food Safety
Molecular & Microbial Ecology	Molecular Genetics
Transmission of Epidemiology of Infectious Disease	Evolution & Comparative Physiology of Bacteria

Laboratory Techniques

Bacterial Work	Media Preparation
Chromatography	PCR
Cell Cultures	Microtitre Plates

Final Year Research Project:

Title:

Designed a method to measure X
Analysed results and compared to X
Presented the results in the form of a thesis and also made an oral presentation using Powerpoint to a panel of lecturers.

Result: First Class Honours

Third Year Literature Review:

Title:

1993 – 1999
ST. JOHN BOSCO'S SECONDARY SCHOOL, TIPPERARY.
Leaving Certificate: 450 points including 'A' grades in higher level Mathematics, Biology and Chemistry.

EMPLOYMENT

Summer 2002
NORTH WESTERN FISHERIES, DONEGAL
Laboratory Aide

- Introduced environmental monitoring techniques.
- Analysed and processed test results.
- Trained staff in ongoing management of monitoring system.
- Maintained first aid facilities, investigated and reported all accidents and identified safety hazards.

1999 – 2001

TESCO, CORK CITY

Sales Assistant / Cash Office Assistant

- Served customers and dealt with their queries.
- Stocked shelves and participated in regular stocktaking.
- Handled large volumes of money and prepared takings for banking.

Summer 2000

BLUE WIND CAFE, NEW YORK, USA

Waitress

- Dealt with all aspects of customer service and care.
- Worked in a highly pressurised environment with regular hygiene and quality audits.
- Handled large amount of cash.
- Worked up to a 60 hour week.

ACHIEVEMENTS

University:

- Awarded Student of the Year in 2nd Year.
- Completed ECDL at UCC – proficient in all Microsoft Office packages, internet and e-mail.

School:

- Head Prefect 1998 – 1999.
- Supervised prefects and liaised with teaching staff and Principal.

Travel:

- Arranged trips to Thailand and Malaysia for a group of 10 friends.
- Gained valuable communication, organisational and interpersonal skills.

INTERESTS

Music:

- Member of UCC Choral Society.
- Achieved Grade 8 in Piano.

Keeping Fit:

- Play tennis and badminton.
- Regularly work-out at gym.

REFERENCES

Dr. Mary O'Brien
Lecturer,
Department of Microbiology,
University College Cork.
E-Mail: m.obrien@ucc.ie
Tel: 021 493 2786

Mr. Vincent Lynch,
Manager,
North Western Fisheries,
Donegal.
Tel: 074 323234